The following guidelines apply for the distribution of sample servings of food and beverage:

- Sample portions must be of tasting style and size only, no larger than 50g or 50ml
- Samples must be directly related to your core business either demonstrating a food product or equipment
- Alcohol sampling portions must be no more than 10ml for spirits and 30ml for wine, beer and cider
- Samples must be offered free of charge
- It is your responsibility to be fully self-sufficient in terms of storage and service equipment specific to your food and/or beverage sampling
- You will be charged for extra cleaning in case of spillage or for the removal of food or wet waste incurred at your stand.

MCEC have sole catering rights for the sales and/or distribution of any article of food or drink for consumption onsite. Use of any external food and beverage provision including sampling must be approved by both the event organiser and MCEC in writing prior to the event, and external supply charges may be applicable. Clients without prior approval will be unable to provide food or beverage onsite.

What you need to know

If you wish to distribute beverage or food at your stand from an external supplier, you:

- Need to register a temporary food and beverage premises with the City of Melbourne
- Need to have washing facilities on your stand to comply with the Victorian State Government food and liquor regulations.

Good-bye single-use plastic MCEC is going green with the Victorian Government's ban on single-use plastics. That means no more plastic drink stirrers, cutlery (knives, forks, spoons, chopsticks, sporks, and food picks), plastic plates, foodware, or cups at allowed at our events.
